The #1 overall seed Kentucky Wildcats waltzed through this year's big dance with ease. While 7 participants correctly chose the winner of the tournament, only one can become victorious in our tournament challenge. Sean Spangler, like a snake in the grass, laid low in the early stages of the tournament. But with a strong back half, the high point values led him to take the title this year. Maybe the rest of us should grow our "tournament uni-brows" for an edge next year.

WAVE Raises $24,000 for Swim-A-Thon

With a few more donations left to be calculated, WAVE has raised almost $24,000 for this year's Swim-A-Thon. We had 36.5% of our team participate raising just shy of 80% of our goal. The overall winner is Taylor Dapkevich raising $1,400. Taylor and her family will receive carpet cleaning for the entire house. Madison Deters came in 2nd raising $1,040. She will receive a sofa and love seat cleaning. Those prizes are in addition to those donated by USA Swimming for reaching certain donation levels. Grand prizes are sponsored by Alex Pope and Green Clean Solutions.

Lauren Steagall Signs with George Washington

Lauren is getting both academic and athletic scholarships in a very substantial amount covering nearly all of her college costs. Lauren's willingness to change and listen to the coaches allowed her to see significant improvement in her senior year. This resulted in interest from numerous colleges for her swimming ability. She is a great example of hard work and learning skills paying off in the pool and the classroom.

WAVE Honor Roll Members

We would like to thank the Huntington Learning Center for sponsoring our honor roll members. This list is for elementary/middle school/high school students. The elementary/middle school students can be on the honor roll for the equivalent of A/B. We wanted to recognize those swimmers that excel not only in the pool, but in the classroom. WAVE realizes the amount of commitment it takes to succeed in school while pursuing your goals in swimming. To be added to the list please contact honorroll@newwaveswimteam.org. To view the ongoing list, please look under the "News Updates" tab on the website for the Honor Roll page.
